ABOUT THE PLACE

Sikkim is an Indian state renowned for its rugged Himalayan landscapes, deep Buddhist culture, and status as India's first organic state. A visit to Sikkim provides a wilder, more serene experience with stunning views of Mt. Kanchenjunga. Within Sikkim, the town of Pelling offers some of the most spectacular and close-up mountain vistas, along with a tranquil atmosphere and historic monasteries. In contrast, Darjeeling, a separate hill station in West Bengal, is famous for its rolling tea gardens, colonial heritage, and the iconic Toy Train. While both offer breathtaking mountain views, Darjeeling is more bustling and developed, whereas Pelling is quieter and more immersed in pristine nature. A combined tour of Sikkim and Darjeeling offers a balanced mix of adventure, tranquility, and cultural richness
